COURT COMMUNICATION ITEM

Item Description

Request approval to use the fund balance of the Economic Development 2001 Fund to support the Collin County Child Advocacy Center.

Background on Item

The Economic Development 2001 Fund was created in FY2001 to account for funds received from the State of Texas Comptroller for unclaimed property from capital credits received from electric cooperative corporations. The Comptroller distributes these funds to counties after a request is made in accordance with Chapter 381 of the Local Government Code (LGC). These funds are restricted to be used to stimulate business and commercial activity by developing and administering a program as listed by Chapter 381.004 of the LGC or to support a child advocacy center as allowed in Chapter 381.004(f) of the LGC (see attachment).

Financial Information

An amount of $33,518.80 is available in the fund balance of the Economic Development 2001 Fund. Funds are budgeted and available.
