RE: Contract Renewal for Contract # 23379909, Type of Service: Child Welfare Board.

Dear Judge Self:

Your current contract with DFPS is expiring August 31, 2009. Enclosed you will find (2) two copies of the forms listed on the Contract Renewal Return Check List for your contract with the Texas Department of Family and Protective Services (DFPS or Department). It is important that you review all documents thoroughly.

To ensure that your contract renewal will be processed by August 31, 2009, all applicable documents should be completed, signed in blue ink by the authorized representative with signature authority no later than July 10, 2009.

Also, we require a list of all current employees, subcontractors, and volunteers working under this contract. In addition we are required to have background check results for all individuals who have or will have direct contact with clients and/or access to client records in accordance with your contract. You will need to include this information with your renewal packet.
