Carol and Michalyn,

I did verify the price and it is $1200.00 plus shipping charge of $29.00.

Valery Rice was not in but I did speak to Jenny Coughenour.

Thanks, Ren

Michalyn,

I spoke with Nicole about transferring budget funds to purchase a radar unit. Attached is the information on the radar unit. Per the e-mail from their rep., the unit is $1200.

We will be trying to transfer funds from Skip Tracing line item (00155506426422) of $1,000 and Printed Materials line item (00155506426562) of $217.71 to Extraordinary patrol Supplies (00155506426219).

If you need other information, please let me know.

Thanks, I appreciate your help...

Hi Kris-

A CPO (Certified Pre-Owned) unit- ProLite + laser is $1200. You are receiving the brochure that should answer any general questions that you make have and it has pictures, too.

I will call you to follow -up and make sure you have all the information you need.

I got your msg the other day on the laser. That's to bad he couldn't get it under $1000. I talked to my supervisor and he asked me to get an itemized quote from you on the unit(pro lite +). We possibly could do a budget amendment. I need it descriptive so we can submit it to the commissioners. If you could get that to me asap, that would be great. I'm going to meet with wal-mart today, to see if they have any more community grant money left over. Thanks you for all your work. I tried to leave a v/m for you, but your inbox was full.
