Subject: Lovejoy ISD v.Christine Gibson

Judge,

Lovejoy ISD filed a condemnation suit for a new school site. The property is owned by my client, Christine Gibson. For some unknown reason the attorney for Lovejoy added all the other taxing jurisdictions: County, City of Lucas and Collin County Community College District. (I have never seen taxing jurisdictions added before). The taxing jurisdictions have no liability in this matter nor do they have any claim to the money. Attachment 1. Citations were issued and according to the docket sheet, the City answered; the County and the College did not. A Special Commissioner's hearing was held October 14 and an Award was entered. Attachment 2.

Lovejoy deposited the Award money into the Court registry. I am trying to withdraw the money for the client. I have prepared a Motion and Order approving withdrawal. It has been approved so far by the attorney for Lovejoy ISD and of course, myself. I am circulating it around to the taxing entities to approve. Attachments 3 & 4. My request is for the County to do the same. Will you direct to whomever needs to approve and sign? It may be you. If you have any questions, please call me or have the county's attorney call me. Thank you and have a nice Thanksgiving.
