Re: Paper ready progress report

---

I have received combined figures related to progress in moving paper ready inmates through the system and out of the detention facilities. I might suggest that, since the information is now available, you might address Commissioners Court in order for the court to see the progress in the efforts made by the Sheriff's Office, the District Attorney, Courts, District Clerk, and court clerks. With IT department's participation, the status of the after sentencing papers will be more easily tracked which should further enhance the process.
