RE: Collin County's Local Emergency Planning Committee New Executive Board and Members

On March 7, 2012 Collin County hosted a re-launch meeting for the Collin County's Local Emergency Planning Committee (LEPC) met to nominate and vote for a new Executive Committee. This meeting was held at the Collin County Homeland Security EOC. The first priority was to nominate and vote for a new Executive Board. This was necessary due to the last recorded meeting being in excess of two years ago. Nominations were made from the floor for the following positions:

- Chairperson
- Vice Chairperson
- Secretary
- Right-to-Know and Public Education Chairperson
- Government and Industrial Liaison Chairperson
- Emergency Response and Resources Chairperson

There was a wide range of representatives and backgrounds from the County, municipalities and the private sector.

Chairperson – Derek Borg, City Manager and Fire Marshal City of Princeton

Vice Chairperson – Harold Watkins, Jr., Fire Chief City of Melissa

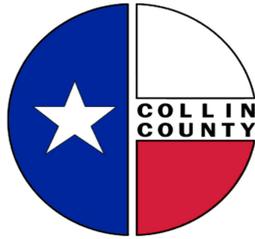

Information Coordinator – Ashleigh Foy, Collin County

Secretary – Phillip Pannell, Detective Sergeant City of Princeton

Right-to-Know and Public Education Chairperson – Kaysey Pollan, Emergency Management Specialist City of Allen

Government and Industrial Liaison Chairperson – Alan Larsen, EHS Engineer Raytheon

Emergency Response and Resources Chairperson – Dick Price, Fire Chief Town of Fairview

I respectfully request you accept the recommendation for the individuals listed above for Collin County's Local Emergency Planning Committee Executive Board leadership positions that were received from the floor nominations and were voted on unanimously.

In addition to the acceptance of the Executive Board positions, the State requires an update submittal on new members and new Executive Board members through the Texas Department of Emergency Management Form 151. I respectfully request the approval signature from the Collin County Judge, Keith Self.
