TO: Collin County Economic Development Corporations

California just voted to raise several taxes in an already high-tax state. This may be the opportune time to present a comprehensive county-wide recruiting effort to selected industries in California, and perhaps other high-tax states. The infrastructure and amenities across our county present a very attractive collage to many prospective target industries.

The Collin County Commissioners Court will discuss this issue on November 19, at 1:30 PM, in our courtroom.

I have discussed the concept of a county-wide recruiting effort with several of our larger cities and discovered that initial talks have already taken place.

I invite you to our meeting on Monday, November 19, to observe and to offer comments if you so choose.

The agenda item reads, "County-wide recruiting effort in coordination with cities; targeting selected industries in selected high tax states."

Sincerely,

Keith Self
County Judge
