

City of Allen JARC Operation Plan

Route Overview

► The Allen JARC route will run seven days a week

- Monday through Saturday, it will run with three buses, including an express bus that will travel directly between the Northern Hub, Southern Hub and the DART station at Parker Road in Plano
- On Sunday, the route will still run with the express, but only use a second bus to service the city proper

► The route will be divided into three segments

- The 301 Route will service the eastern half of Allen, taking thirty minutes to travel from north to south, and vice versa
- The 302 Route will service the western half of Allen, taking thirty minutes to travel from north to south, and vice versa
- The Allen Commuter Express will strictly service the Northern and Southern hubs, as well as the DART station at Parker Road. This will allow riders to travel from the DART station to the Northern hub in thirty minutes or less

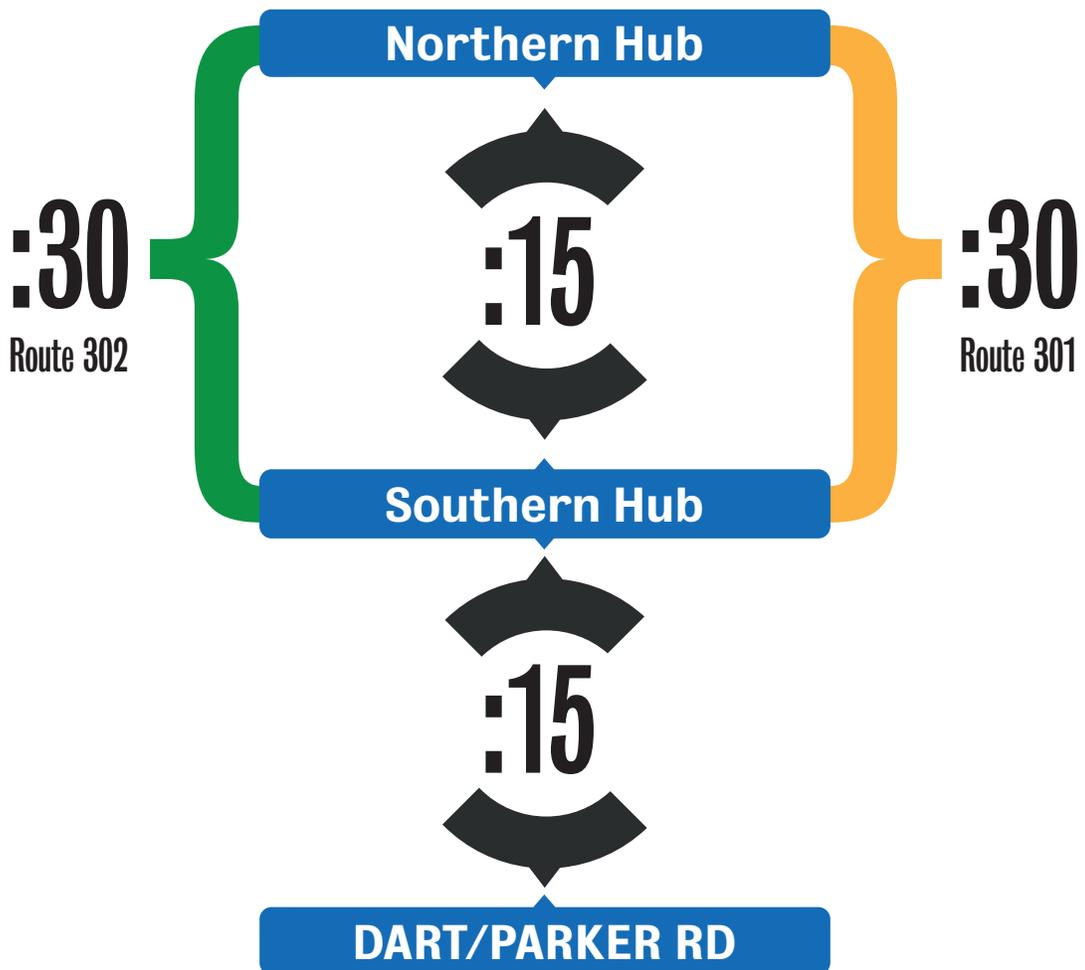

► As this is a fixed route system, all three buses will never deviate from their assigned schedules

- No additional stops will be made, no stops will be by-passed, and no detours will be taken under normal conditions
- No bus will ever leave a stop before the posted departure time. If it arrives at a stop early, it will layover until the official departure time
- The Allen Commuter Express will only stop at the Northern hub, the Southern hub, and the DART station at Parker Road

► Stop Designation

- Each stop along the 301 and 302 routes will be given an alphanumeric designation
- For e.g. Stop 301-A, 301-B, 302-C, etc.
- The Northern and Southern hubs will not receive an alphanumeric designation
