Re: FYI - City of Van Alstyne Mutual Boundary Work

In 2012, Public Works identified 8 county roads earmarked for improvements which share a mutual boundary with Van Alstyne. PW staff solicited the city's participation with the Mutual Boundary Road objective but Van Alstyne declined due to budgetary concerns. Despite this, the County elected to proceed with paving all 8 roads in 2013 and 2014 (See Court Order No. 2012-603-08-27).

Recent conversations with Van Alstyne officials reveal their desire to now participate with the County's effort. The city council passed a resolution September 22 authorizing a reimbursement to Collin County for the 8 roads. The city will issue a check in the amount of $23,602.66 after October 1, 2014. The affected roads are listed below.

Road	Cost
CR219	$2,226.05
CR289	$196.42
CR372	$2,455.20
CR373	$3,731.90
CR429	$5,532.38
CR1101	$1,407.65
CR290	$5,466.91
CR481	$2,586.14
Total for all 8 roads	$23,602.66
