RE: Sole Source Designation—Thomson Reuters Westlaw

Dear Diane:

Thomson Reuters (West Publishing Corporation) provides a legal research solution via Westlaw. This letter is to confirm West's status as the sole source provider for Westlaw, which includes the exclusive content, features, and services listed on the following page.

Westlaw provides legal researchers with access to exclusive resources, proprietary tools, and technology that no other research provider can offer, such as the following:

- Authoritative content—With the most trusted primary law resources and leading analytical titles that are cited most often in court—all in one place and always available—researchers have access to all of the relevant information they need to answer a legal question.
- Attorney-editor enhancements—For more than a century, our attorney-editors have been analyzing, summarizing, and classifying the law. By developing proprietary innovations like the West Key Number System, KeyCite, and notes of decisions, we make the content better organized and connected so it's easier for researchers to find, validate, and interpret the law.
- Industry-defining technology—Our research innovations, such as WestSearch, the award-winning iPad app, folder sharing, and Graphical Statutes connect content and our proprietary analysis of the law in unparalleled ways so that legal professionals can conduct research faster and with more accuracy. Advanced, yet intuitive, easy-to-use functionality also helps researchers be more efficient.

With Westlaw, researching is more complete, accurate, and efficient.

I would be happy to further discuss with you the exclusive features, services, and content available via Westlaw. If you have any questions concerning this document or require additional information, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Brandon

Exclusive Content

- National Reporter System—Since 1879, our National Reporter System has compiled and organized federal and state case law into a cohesive body of law that can be researched within and across jurisdictions.
- West Key Number System—The West Key Number System, is the master classification system of U.S. law and is widely regarded as the cornerstone of effective legal research. It helps users to quickly locate and identify cases with the same or similar legal concepts in any jurisdiction in the U.S.
- Editorial Enhancements—For more than 100 years, our attorney-editors have been providing editorial enhancements to case law, statutes, and other legal materials. No other research service can match our editorial experience. Our exclusive enhancements include headnotes (more than 350,000 created annually), synopses (more than 60,000 created annually), and parallel citations (more than 500,000 added annually). Our headnotes are classified to the exclusive West Key Number System.
- Correction and Verification Process—Our attorney-editors provide the most exhaustive verification and correction process in the legal publishing and information industry. We are the only legal information provider to engage in these quality control steps to ensure the accuracy and reliability of the data.
- West Key Number Digest System—The West Key Number Digest System has been an essential case-finding tool since the United States Digest was first published in 1848. A digest is a multi-volume index to the law consisting of major topic headings, thousands of subheadings, and short summaries of legal propositions stated in published cases, referred to as headnotes.
- Uniform Laws Annotated (ULA)—The ULA provides an extensive reference to the text of uniform laws, prepared under the sponsorship of the National Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws and the American Law Institute. ULA examines acts recommended for adoption in all states, pinpoints state variations, and includes annotations to cases decided in adopting jurisdictions.

- Restatements of the Law—The restatements are principles of black letter law distilled from case law. Restatements on Westlaw provide a section's black letter law, reporter's notes, commentary, illustrations, and annotations in one document. First Restatements of the Law, available exclusively on Westlaw, can help researchers trace the evolution of a law, or an area of law, and aid in the interpretation of older cases that rely on First Restatement sections.
- American Jurisprudence Library—The American Jurisprudence library provides fast, authoritative answers to many aspects of civil, criminal, substantive, and procedural law. Westlaw provides exclusive online access to the full library.
- Corpus Juris Secundum (CJS)—CJS helps researchers understand unfamiliar areas of law by providing links to cases, statutes, regulations, key numbers, restatements, and more. CJS covers the full breadth and depth of the law, is cited to tens of thousands times by the courts, and is fully integrated with the West Key Number System.
- Briefs—Westlaw provides access to an extensive and exclusive collection of appellate briefs at both the federal and state levels. As of October 2014, Westlaw contains more than 2.8 million separate documents and the number of briefs is growing monthly.
- National Reporter Images—National Reporter Images provides cost effective, easy access to an exact electronic copy of a National Reporter System case.
- Practical Law—Practical Law provides legal know-how that gives lawyers a better starting point. Attorney-editors create and maintain thousands of up-to-date, practical resources. We go beyond primary law and traditional legal research to give lawyers the resources needed to practice more efficiently.

Exclusive Features & Services

- WestSearch—WestSearch, a search engine designed specifically for law, incorporates over 140 years of proprietary analysis of the law and exclusive tools such as key numbers, KeyCite, headnotes, notes of decisions, indexes, and secondary sources to deliver relevant documents.
- Case Summaries—These editorially-created summaries help researchers move through result lists efficiently, providing an understanding of what a case is about at a glance.
- Visual Indicators—Icons help researchers easily determine when they have already viewed or worked with a document.
