Re: Modria Online Dispute Resolution – Tyler Subscription License and Services Agreement

The Collin County Information Technology department requests approval of the Tyler Subscription License and Services Agreement for the Modria Online Dispute Resolution system. The system will provide an online interface to allow asynchronous party-to-party and mediated negotiations for litigants to resolve disputes outside the courtroom. Collin County is piloting the technology and being observed by the State of Texas Office of Court Administration, the National Center for State Courts, and PEW Charitable Trusts for initiative success.

The unique funding structure allows Collin County to leverage Texas Civil Practice and Remedies Code, Title 7, Chapter 152 as a funding source. Therefore, there is no budgetary impact.
