J.D.,

You should have gotten this last week, however we heard some folks did not, so here it is again just in case.
As explained below, we have changed our name, however there is no ownership or company structure change.

As such, I have amended what you sent yesterday to reflect our current name, see attached.
Unless you have an issue with how I have amended, I will get these filled out and sent back ASAP.

Thanks!
Billy
