MANAGED ASSIGNED COUNSEL PROGRAM

Collin County is seeking a discretionary grant from the Texas Indigent Defense Commission to fund a Managed Assigned Counsel Program. Implementation of this program will result in enhanced communications with assigned attorneys and oversight of defense services, attorney pay sheet processing, and improved overall efficiency of the indigent defense process. The undersigned judge agrees to support and participate in the program pursuant to the discretionary grant award and any special conditions of the grant award to the county. This commitment includes participating in the data-collection efforts required in the program as well as utilization of the services to be provided by the program.

Acknowledged and approved by Judge John R. Roach, Jr.
