Questions & Answers from Pre-Bid 6/21/2019

Q: Is this contract for just delivery or unboxing too?

A: This contract is just for the delivery and pickup. No unboxing will be required.

Q: How is the route determined?

A: The routes are determined by the Elections department and take into account the availability of the locations, and open/close times.

Q: How many delivery locations will a truck typically hold?

A: Depending on the size of the truck and the location needs, some trucks may only be able to hold enough equipment for 1-2 locations. Contractor must be able to have at least six (6) dedicated trucks.

Q: How does the contractor know what goes to each location?

A: The Elections department clearly labels the location on each item for delivery.

Q: Can the equipment be pre-loaded the night before delivery?

A: No, the Election equipment must be attended at all times throughout the delivery and pickup process.

Q: Will items be ready for pickup from the Elections office?

A: Items will be ready for pickup. Elections employees will push the items to the delivery trucks and contractor will be responsible for loading them. There are two docks that are available.

Q: Will items be ready for pickup from the voting locations?

A: The majority of time all items will be ready for pickup at the voting locations. There is a small percentage of time that the contractor may need to wait a short period to be able to pickup.

Q: Do the Carriers, Work Stations, or DS200 cabinets need to be wrapped?

A: The preferred method by Elections is to wrap them in Equipment pads, but it's optional.

Q: Do the route schedules have to be followed exactly?

A: The delivery and pickup routes that Elections supplies needs to be followed and can not be altered unless authorized by an Elections representative. Backup trucks must be available in case of breakdown.

Q: How far in advance is the contractor given the route schedules?

A: The contractor is typically notified and given the delivery schedules 4-6 weeks before early voting begins.
