SENIOR FALCON EXPERT

EXPERTISE: CORRECTIONAL BEHAVIORAL HEALTH; STAFF
WELLNESS TRAINING AND PANDEMIC
RESPONSE; TRAUMA- RESPONSIVE ENVIRONMENTS

Dr. Robin Timme is recognized as a leader in correctional behavioral health across the country, frequently speaking and teaching at national conferences, and supporting innovative programming. Dr. Timme has practiced in the fields of correctional and forensic psychology for fifteen years, shaping policy, supervising behavioral health clinicians, and handling evaluations of high-risk and high-needs inmate-patients.

Dr. Timme is increasingly focused on treatment and management of special populations, including extensive work with transgender and gender non-conforming inmates, and with implementation of programming for individuals with Serious Mental Illness (SMI) in both prison and jail facilities.

Dr. Timme has strong expertise in the areas of psychological evaluation, specialized programming for serious mental illness, management of psychopathy and malingering, policy development and implementation, and trauma-informed environments of care. In addition to development and implementation of programs for justice-involved individuals, Dr. Timme also specializes in professional development for clinical and custody staff alike, recognizing the challenges facing officers and clinicians on the front lines of this important work.

In addition to a Doctoral Degree in Clinical Psychology, Dr. Timme holds a Master's Degree in Criminal Justice, as well as a Master's Degree in Education. He is the chair of the Ethics Committee of Delaware Psychological Association and sits on the Education Committee and Mental Health Subcommittee for the National Commission on Correctional Health Care (NCCHC). Dr. Timme is a Diplomate of the American Board of Professional Psychology (ABPP), he is a Fellow in the American Academy of Forensic Psychologists (AAFP), and a Certified Correctional Health Professional for Mental Health (CCHP-MH).

LSOTP, CCHP

TECHNICAL FALCON EXPERT

EXPERTISE: STAFF WELLNESS AND HOLISTIC HEALTH; SOCIAL COACHING;
TRAUMA-RESPONSIVE ENVIRONMENTS

Harmony Goorley serves as a technical expert for Falcon Inc., providing high-level correctional behavioral health know-how to jails and prisons. As a Falcon expert, Harmony contributes to correctional magazines, exercising principles of social coaching to build collaborative and impactful relationships with offenders, and accelerating the rehabilitation process through enlightened facility design. Harmony is also known as a knowledgeable and high-energy presenter, speaking nationally on a variety of topics on optimal standards of correctional practice.

Harmony earned a Masters of Forensic Psychology with a Concentration in Corrections while the degree was still relatively new to the field. She later became a Licensed Clinical Professional Counselor, Licensed Sex Offender Treatment Provider, and Certified Correctional Health Professional. She continues to speak nationally, educating professionals on the importance of creating trauma-responsive correctional facilities.

During the last decade, Harmony has worked to elevate mental health and behavioral health programming in jails nation-wide. She is highly specialized in the management of habitual and psychopathic offenders, suicide prevention, crisis intervention, inmate intakes and evaluation, and group therapies. Harmony serves on the Staff Wellness Committee of the American Correctional Association, dedicated to the advancement of holistic health and wellness of correctional professionals, and the development and implementation of initiatives addressing employment-related stress.
