Hi Angie – Toyota currently provides 100% pay for TM's that are required to quarantine or isolate. The length of this pay can vary and we do cover multiple paid quarantine or isolation leaves for TM's to ensure they are reporting the right type of information to us to ensure safety in our workplace. In the event they are symptomatic and unable to return to work after 14-calendar days, team members transition to short-term disability. Our intention is to continue this protocol in 2021.

Regards,

Jodie Driscoll

Collin County Human Resources is currently surveying employers in its area to see how they are handling COVID payments to sick employees. We would like information on how the corporate in Plano, TX is handling their employees who are positive for COVID or are quarantined. We would like to know if they are being paid, what percentage of their salary, if you will continue through the new year, and any other information.
