FYI NOTIFICATION

1. AI-50494 Intra-County account transfers transmitted on June 11, 2021, Auditor.

2. Public Comments.

Lynette Wright, Frisco, said on March 14, 2021, Marvin Scott was murdered at the Collin County jail while experiencing a mental health crisis. One-hundred days after Marvin's murder, the grand jury issued a no-bill indictment of the eight Collin County jailers. This announcement is yet another devastating blow to the Scott family and the community. Ms. Wright asked when something will be done to protect black lives. The grand jury's decision was made after Sheriff Skinner fired the eight officers for failure to follow policy. Then, there were two independent autopsies that clearly ruled Marvin's death a homicide. Ms. Wright demanded the release of the video of Marvin's death and the arrest of the Collin County eight.

Marisa Williams, McKinney, said she is part of a group of moms and aunties who realized there are many people who believe they have to get the COVID-19 vaccine. The group realized there is nobody educating people and informing them they don't have to get the vaccine. Ms. Williams said one of the things she hopes to do as part of the group is to encourage students and employees to use the Duck Duck Go search engine instead of using Google. Through that search engine, a website called Corey's Digs can be found. The website contains student/employer questionnaires that helps create conversations regarding the vaccine. Ms. Williams briefly explained the vaccine exemptions citizens can obtain. The name of the group they have created is People Against Coerced Shots, and they call themselves PACS.

Joshua Murray, Lavon, said it is really important for the Commissioners Court to assess the County's COVID-19 vaccination rollout. In order to do so, the original plan must be identified and then determine what actually occurred. Based on that information, the County will be able to develop a standard operating procedure for future vaccines. The plan could be used in the future when there is a new Commissioners Court. The County hired a third party that had never distributed vaccines. A County waitlist was then established and used to ensure there were enough customers for the third-party vaccine hub and for the city of McKinney. What occurred was that the volume of appointments was too great to handle. Also, the company contracted only did 30% of what they promised. There is the potential that citizens will need a vaccine booster within eight months, and there is no plan of action.

Rachel Reitan, McKinney, said the grand jury has rendered its decision on Marvin Scott III. Furthermore, they have made a statement and recommendation for a work team to investigate and evaluate the correctional policy. This statement and recommendation acknowledge there is a problem. We as citizens and the Court as elected officials owe a duty of care for those held in our institutions. In order to do the right thing, the procedures for dealing with detained individuals with mental health and without mental health illnesses must be evaluated. It is also incumbent upon the County to publicly release the audio and visual tapes of Marvin Scott's last hours. Ms. Reitan asked for the video to be publicly released immediately and asked the Court when the citizens can expect that to happen.

Scott Coleman, Wylie, said he would like to acknowledge the Collin County Commissioners Court for their decision to devote funds from the American Rescue Plan Act to mental health and health services. All residents deserve a transparent government budget that is open to feedback and embraces ideas. There are major issues before the County like how CPS (Child Protective Services) will be managed, mental health, and safety. Last week, resident Miguel Palacios requested more public time for residents to come to Court and speak about what they would like to see in the budget. Mr. Coleman requested an answer to Mr. Palacios request for more time. There should be a public time in July for citizens to speak on the capital projects the Court approved, the remaining funds of the American Rescue Plan Act, and the entire FY2022 Budget. According to the approved calendar, the Court is set to approve the FY2022 Budget on August 16, 2021, which is the exact same day of the public hearing. This means, if the budget is approved on the same day as the public hearing, there will be no public questions, comments or concerns taken into account. Residents deserve a more meaningful voice in the budget process than three minutes to speak on the same day the budget is set to be approved. Mr. Coleman said, if the Court does not open the budget process to the public, he worries there will be more needless death and suffering in Collin County.
