MEMO

Date: February 14, 2021
To: Commissioners Court
From: Tracy R. Homfeld, PE, CFM; Collin County Engineering
Subject: Interlocal Agreement with the City of Plano concerning the 2018 Bond Project RI18009, Shiloh Rd from 14th street to East Park Blvd.

The City of Plano has completed the design for the widening of Shiloh Rd from 14th Street to East Park Blvd from a two-lane roadway to a 4-lane arterial. Construction will start in spring of 2022. The project is anticipated to be completed by the end of 2023.

The City estimates the actual costs of the project to be $10,020,000. Approval of the Interlocal Agreement will commit County bond funds for a total of $5,010,000. The funding will come from the following City of Plano Bond Projects:

$4,942,136 from 2018 project #RI18009 Shiloh Rd from 14th St to East Park Blvd.

$67,864 from 2003 Project #RI03065 Completed Windhaven Parkway from County line to Spring Creek Parkway

TOTAL: $5,010,000

ACTION:

We request Commissioners Court consider approval of the Interlocal Agreement between Collin County and the City of Plano for the widening of Shiloh Rd from 14th Street to East Park Blvd; 2018 Bond Project #RI18009. Collin County participation of $5,010,000 and authorize Judge Chris Hill to sign the ILA.
