The link previously sent for model SC-1911 (does not have DVD - despite what the mfg. website URL description says)

<https://www.supersonicinc.com/products/19-class-widescreen-led-hdtv-with-dvd>

The new backorder ETA is "5/10" across the board

Good Afternoon Bryan,

I was informed that you may be able to help me out. We had an issue in the past where we had bought the 19" Insignia N10 class televisions only to realize after we got them, there were no controls on the televisions, and we can't give inmates remotes. So I was told you were able to get us some of the Supersonic 19" Class LED 720p HDTV which did have the external controls on the unit? Are you still able to get these, and if so how much are they?

Respectfully,
