Optional Testing Service (per site):

Infrared Scan:

Infrared Thermography is an un-invasive and effective means of identifying potential problems before an incident or failure occurs by detecting abnormal thermal rises in electrical, mechanical, or structural components within a facility. Infrared Thermography is recommended by the Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers (IEEE), National Fire Protection Agency (NFPA) 70E, and more insurance companies as part of a successful maintenance program on an annual basis.

- IR Scan takes place during regular business hours.
- Deliverables: report with location, description, and recommended solution with infrared and digital pictures of problem areas.
- The equipment list includes all components of UPS electrical system.
- Access covers/panels removed and reinstalled by customer, unless requested otherwise.
- Work performed by Vertiv Corporation.

Benefits of an IR Scan: Identify and deal with emerging problems early enough for maintenance to be performed, thus reducing emergency repair and maintenance costs, avoiding costly, unscheduled downtime and business interruption, improving overall system reliability, and extending the life of equipment.
