

An order of the Collin County Commissioners Court approving the Courthouse Security Policy.

The Collin County Commissioners Court hereby approves this Collin County Courthouse Security Policy.

Collin County prohibits unauthorized entry into the security sensitive areas surrounding the county courthouse, as indicated in the attached documentation. Furthermore, no individual or group may assemble or congregate in any location or in any manner that impedes the ingress or egress of vehicular or pedestrian traffic. Any individual or group assembling or engaging in speech activities on Collin County premises shall at all times comply with applicable federal, state, county, and city laws, statutes, ordinances, regulations, and rules. The Collin County Sheriff's Office and all law enforcement partners shall have the authority and responsibility to enforce this policy.

A motion was made, seconded, and carried by a majority of the court members in attendance during a regular session on Monday, May 11, 2026.
