Briefly describe your plans for your collaboration/event with your Subaru retailer:

Collin County Animal Services will host a vaccine and microchipping event at our shelter in McKinney, TX. We will offer $15 core (dog/cat specific) vaccines per pet and free microchipping for the first 100 animals to attend the event. We will have a vet on site that will evaluate the animals, oversee the vaccinations and answer any questions that arise as well as a team of staff and volunteers assisting with the event.

Brandon Tomes Subaru will be invited to have a table and speak to the community/public that arrive. We will have other local businesses on site to share information and opportunities with the public as well.

We will also offer discounted adoptions of $10 for the entire month of October. We average 200-250 adoptions in October.

Have you discussed collaboration/event plans with your Subaru retailer partner?

Yes, we've discussed with our retailer partner and are aligned on our plans for October

Is there any additional information you'd like to provide about your proposal?

Involve Social Media:

CCAS will advertise the event on social media where we have a following of over 126,000 as well as with flyers and notices throughout the shelter. Adoption photos will be tagged with #Subarulovespets when posted on our social media sites at the end of each day.

Which of these eligible costs will you cover with the funding?

Make-ready costs for animals available for adoption in October (e.g., spay/neuter surgery, microchip, vaccinations, testing, deworme...

IN-PERSON EVENT: Veterinary supplies and expenses for October spay/neuter or vaccination event for the public

IN PERSON EVENT: Staffing costs (up to 50% of funding may be used) for October adoption, spay/neuter or vaccination event for th...

What percentage of the funding do you anticipate spending on make-ready costs?
